News

Mass for the Recent Dead: Mass for the members of the Sacred Heart who died this year on Tuesday 26th November.

Christmas bazaar: - 30th November: The Bazaar is only one week away and so far, we have had a very poor response to all appeals for support for our major fund raiser. We still have 100 books of raffle tickets to sell, and there is a shortage of the cash pledges for the draw. So please, as a parishioner, support your parish. Also needed are, Groceries (130 prizes), Bottles (140 prizes) New or nearly new items, for the Tombola and Nearly new stalls, Cakes., (Mrs Durkin supplies the bulk of cakes etc., and we are sure she would be delighted to receive any cakes etc for the stall .BRIC-A-BRAC, We are accepting items for this stall now, but, PLEASE NO JUMBLE, Help to set up stalls and to clear away after the event. If you can offer help for an hour or two please see Jacqui or Sally, all help will be very much appreciated. Finally, your attendance is needed on the day to show your support for the event and FOR YOUR PARISH.

Hall will be open from 6.00 pm to 8.00 pm on Friday to drop the items.

Annual St Thomas More Lecture at the Oxford

University:- This Friday 22nd November, we will be hosting our annual St Thomas More Lecture at the Oxford University Catholic Chaplaincy. The Lord Shinkwin, a great advocate for disability equality in the House of Lords, will address us on his life as a Peer and the relationship between Church and Parliament in 2019.
