Sacrament of Reconciliation: Thursday, 6.00-6.45 pm

Welcome to Sacred Heart Church, especially if you are here for the first time for a long time.

Please pray for those we know who are sick. If you are ill and you would like your name to be mentioned on this newsletter, let me know (in writing, please). Similarly, if a family member is ill, please let me know in writing.

Please pray for Antonio Abreu, Margaret Jones, Mary Murphy, Delia Simmons, Maria Barresi, Noleen Keenan, and all those who have died recently, and for all those whose anniversaries occur about this time, including: Mgr. Bernard Stephen O'Connor, Frs. John Francis Hughes, Aidan White-Spunner, Brendan Byrne, Thomas Burbage, John Murray and John Galcius. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. May they rest in peace.

The Sacraments. I am available for Confessions on Thursday evenings, 6.00-6.45. If you would like to arrange a Baptism or a Marriage, please call me.

Winter is coming! I confess that I have never watched a single episode of the TV series “Game of Thrones”, but I understand that there was a catchphrase in it, “Winter is coming!”, which implied all sorts of doom and disaster to come. I must also admit that I can’t help noticing without a slight feeling of disappointment and depression that, at this time of year, the sun sets earlier each evening. All the signs are that this particular winter is going to be one to be endured with the best grace we can find, rather than one to be enjoyed. But having said that, let us remember that all times belong to God and that we are precious to Him. Indeed, He has carved us on the palm of His hand, and He will not desert us. The winter season has many beautiful things to look forward to. In just a couple of weeks we shall celebrate the great Feast of All Saints, remembering that God has won the victory over evil, even in weak creatures like us. Then, at the lowest point of the winter, the darkest hours of the year, we shall celebrate the fact that God Himself has come to be one with us in all the fears and sorrows that surround us. There is every reason to hope and to live with purpose. Finally, the greatest reason of all to rejoice at this time of year: the clocks change next Saturday night/Sunday morning. That means we get an extra hour in bed. Yippee!

If you cannot get to Mass – and the Sunday obligation to attend Mass has been lifted for the time being – you can still join in by watching a live Mass via the wonders of modern technology. Here is a prayer, an Act of Spiritual Communion, which you can say as you watch a Livestream Mass:

“My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.”

Prayer at the end of Mass:

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O merciful, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

Updated Restrictions For Places Of Worship. Since Monday, 28th September, the following changes to government restrictions have come into effect:

- Weddings: attendance is now limited to 15 people.
- Baptisms: For baptisms outside of the context of a parish Mass, attendance is limited to 6 people. For baptisms in the context of a parish Mass, the capacity limit of the church applies.
- Funerals: no change i.e. attendance limited to 30 people.
- Mass: If you are attending Mass with others, then the group should not exceed 6 people. A group of six can be made up of people from outside your household, but social distancing must be maintained between members of different households. The only exception to this new rule is where a single household (or support bubble) contains more than six people, but the same rules on social interaction with others outside of the group apply.
- Confirmation & First Holy Communion: In the context of a parish Mass, the normal capacity limit of the church applies. If it is not within a Mass then only six may attend.

PLEASE REMAIN VIGILANT. Wear a face covering in the church and keep a safe distance from other people. If you or anyone with whom you have been in contact has symptoms of Covid-19 please do not come to church. Thank you for your co-operation with these measures to help stem the spread of Covid-19 and keep those attending our church safe. Intercultural celebration of the many nations that now make up the Diocesan Family, prepared by the Ethnic chaplaincies in the Diocese. It is available on the Diocesan Website (www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk), which means that it is available to everyone. There is lovely music, prayers, readings and greetings in the many languages of our Community.

World Mission Sunday, Today is World Mission Sunday, a special day that unites Catholics all over the world in prayer, celebration and care for the mission of the Church. Your prayers and donations will support the work of missionaries as they share God's mercy and love.

CAFOD have sent a message of thanks for our support of the recent coronavirus appeal on Harvest Family Fast Day. Our parish raised £143.75. Thank you for your generosity, and please pray that our sisters and brothers around the world can survive, rebuild and heal.

Tailpiece: A parish priest came back to his presbytery one day, panting and almost completely exhausted. "What on earth is the matter, Father?" asked his worried housekeeper. "It's this great new idea I have to live more simply and save money," he gasped. "I ran all the way home from the deanery meeting behind the bus and saved £1.50." "But Father, that wasn't very clever," objected his housekeeper. "Why didn't you run behind a taxi and save £10?"

May God bless you and all those whom you love, and keep you safe. Fr. Harry.

One World Week 18-25 October: usually each year there is an Intercultural Mass. This year it will be an online
